

Where Are They Now?

Professional interpreter, translator, language assessor
and interlocutor

HANDAN BOLUKBASI

Handan joined Mary Ward Centre as a student in 1999 and completed the Community Interpreting and Community Translation courses. She gained level 3 in both courses and soon started working as a professional Interpreter and Translator for a number of community language services.

Handan's professional work also includes interpreter training, acting as an interlocutor for the Institute of Linguists and Turkish language assessment of Interpreting and Translation students.
